

THE GUEST

Welcome to my house, enter freely and of your own will You're my guest tonight, but here you've got no free will Come here and follow me, no hesitating come down to heaven
My jaws of ivory, to get me under, to make me stronger

Give up, give up to ecstasy
Forget cocaine and LSD
Give up, give up to ecstasy
Give up to me I'll set you free

Do you fear me now, maybe imagination
Fooled your human eyes, you can't see my reflection
Now It's too late to run off, a different prison a new religion
So all the lights will turn off, and here together we'll live forever

Give up, give up to ecstasy
Forget cocaine and LSD
Give up, give up to ecstasy
Give up to me I'll set you free

Give up, give up to ecstasy
Forget cocaine and LSD
Give up, give up to ecstasy
Give up to me I'll set you free
